THANKS!

A big thank you goes out to all of our current, past and upcoming customers for being such a big part of Highland Hunting. Without you we would not be here today. Thank you for all of your support and continued business over the years. We look forward to seeing everyone again soon and hope to create many new friends along the way.

A look back at 2012

Last Season

Looking back at this time last year we were dealing with a nation wide problem of a bird shortage. As this created a bump in the road that we have never seen in the 13 years of operation, we made it through, along with being one of the few hunting preserves left open in the state of Iowa in March. Unfortunately we had to cancel the Cabin Fever hunt last year and cut back on some bookings but we managed to make it a great March. We are definitely glad not to be in that situation again and hope to never see that again in the future. As I write this letter we have more birds on the farm today than we have had in over 5 years. With the dry spring and summer and consistent temps, it made for a perfect hatching season. With that being said we have lots of awesome hard flying birds ready to go, and dates are starting to fill up. Please call or email and let us help you get your next upland adventure set up.

The Farmers Table/Monthly Dinners with Chef Chris Grebner

New in 2012 we started hosting dinners at Highland Hunting with Chef Chris Grebner. During the spring and summer we held dinner's the 3rd Monday of each month. During these dinners Chef Chris and his crew prepared a seasonal plate with local ingredients which is topped off with mouth watering deserts. As the popularity grows more and more we plan to continue with this same arrangement for 2013. Plus we will have a few bonus dates specializing in a 4- 7 course meal. Check Chris out and stay tuned to the website or facebook page to reserve your seat.

The Sporting Clays Season

We had a great sporting clays season this summer with many new events and ideas that will grow into the next season to come. A few things that we are proud of is the start of the new Highland High School Shooting Team. We had a great group of students sign up last March and had a outstanding first season. We also starting a new six week league that had a fun twist making it more of a game then a competition. We will continue with this in the next season but will have a few new changes that should make it a bit more challenging and fun all at the same time.

Remember the Sporting Clays range is a great place for customer outings, get together, and fundraising events. Each year we host more and more of these are very thankful to all of those who have booked these types of event with us. We look forward to seeing all of you again in the 2013 Sporting Clays Season.

2013 Brings Exciting New Changes!

Congratulations !!

Jason Vanderlinden & Megan Montgomery

Jason has recently become engaged to his girlfriend of three years Megan, and are now proud owners/parents of a young chocolate lab, Bailey. In 2013, Jason is looking forward to creating a life with Megan, spending time in the field and water with Bailey, and making more memories with friends and family at Highland Hideaway.

New Staff Addition

Highland Hunting will be seeing a new staff addition in March. Baby Boy Giannini is due March 23rd, 2013. Ryan, Kate, family and friends are very excited and are looking forward to growing their family!

Ron had a busy spring and summer with custom seeding because of the mild weather. He was able to get the Harley out quite a bit and take a few day trips. In 2013, he plans to spend time with family and grandkids and get out on his bike and maybe do some traveling.

Looking Forward

With the year passing by we always look for new opportunities and ideas to better the next hunting season and improve the upcoming sporting clays season. We look to you the customer for input to help us with this. If you have an idea or something that you would like to see new or different at Highland Hunting please share this with us. We can only make your experience here better if we get all of your feedback. You can e-mail your thoughts and ideas to:
